

Interviewing Skills & Techniques

~ The Investigators “How to”

The INTERVIEW is your personal confirmation of truth or deception by means of body language, statement analysis, and micro expressions presented by the interviewee. As you assess: Are the person’s responses consistent with their answers from other areas of the investigation and documents, and are they consistent with responses from others?

This class is intended to give those tasked with interviewing persons, i.e. witnesses, suspects, or job applicants the knowledge, skills, and techniques to better read and assess that person. Enabling you to make a better, more informed decision as to the veracity of this is the person.

Whether you are an Investigator, H.R. manager, or Division Head this course is designed with you in mind. You can get some of your best information from your one-on-one interview, if you know what you’re looking for. We give you the skills to know what you’re looking for.
