

SAFETY AND SECURITY FOR PLACES OF WORSHIP

HOW TO BE AN EFFECTIVE RESOURCE FOR PLACES OF WORSHIP (Yours and Others)

Wednesday, December 5th, 2012 (12:30 pm – 4:30 pm)

Hosted by the United States Attorney's Office with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Ada County Sheriff's Office and Boise Police Department

Location: Washington Group Plaza Auditorium, 720 E. Park Boulevard, Boise, Idaho

This no-cost workshop is packed with information and inspiration about the big picture of safety and security for places of worship. You'll gain immediately applicable techniques combined with unique approaches you won't find anywhere else.

- How to easily develop and implement the components of a thorough and complete program.
- How to stay balanced, practical, and reasonable about plans and procedures.
- How to be a valuable resource for church leaders and others.

You'll Receive

A class participation workbook. Additionally, participants will receive (via e-mail) the complete Worship Without Worry materials for developing plans and procedures, as well as PowerPoint slides and a teaching plan for safety and security briefings.

For Leaders in Places of Worship and for Sworn and Non-Sworn Law Enforcement

- The information you need to make the people, places, property, programs and processes of any place of worship more safe and secure, all the time, year-around.
- Ideal for church leaders, security directors and facility managers as well as for officers, deputies, non-sworn staff and chaplains.
- Learn techniques for conducting safety and security assessments; developing security committees and teams; producing a security manual that gets used; presenting training about safety and security issues; keeping an expanded focus on whole-church safety and security.

WORKSHOP LEADER

Tina Lewis Rowe, Denver PD Captain (ret.)
U.S. Marshal, Colorado (ret.)
