

If you haven't responded yet to a call involving a person with autism... you will soon!

Boise Police Department

Is hosting the following free training opportunity

Autism and Law Enforcement*

October 24, 2013

0800-1200 or 1300-1700

City Hall West, Sawtooth Auditorium

Boise Police Department

333 N. Mark Stall Place, Boise, ID

Instructed by Officer Brian Herritt, a veteran officer
Who also happens to be a father of a child with autism.

The course will focus on autism recognition and response; predictable contacts and 911 dispatches, perpetrator and victim trends; de-escalation tips, restraint, arrest and incarceration options, dilemmas in interrogation and interview settings, interviewing victims who have autism, early childhood behaviors of persons with autism, resources available to help the officer. You will learn:

- How to identify and communicate effectively with people with autism
- Reduce liability to yourself and your Department
- Learn about resources in dealing with persons with autism and other disabilities

RSVP required! To register or for any questions, please e-mail Diane Eckhart, deckhart@cityofboise.org. Class size is limited to 20 students per session.

www.autismriskmanagement.com