

Training Announcement

Supervisor's Role in Managing the Use of Force Incident

Based on the comprehensive liability management treatise:
MANAGING THE USE OF FORCE INCIDENT
For Criminal Justice Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators

Date: November 17, 2011
Location: Best Western Coeur d' Alene Inn
506 W. Apple Way Ave., Coeur d' Alene, Idaho

Hours: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Tuition: $95.00

What This Informative Seminar Offers

An improperly managed use of force incident can cost your department millions of dollars and cause long term damage to the department's public image and reputation. This informative seminar provides criminal justice supervisors with the information necessary to effectively manage the use of force incident and prevent department liability. The following are examples of what this dynamic presentation will cover:

- Current Supreme Court rulings on deadly force
- Recent appellate court Taser rulings
- Causes of officer and department liability
- Actions that damage an officer's credibility
- Proper use of force evidence collection
- Forensic Taser evidence that is critical to an officer's defense
- Proactive approach to managing department and officer liability
- Creating court defensible training records
- Creating defensible use of force policies
- Guidelines for managing witness' perceptions at the scene of a force incident
- Reducing panic-induced excessive force by officers
- Properly documenting the use of force incident
- Supervisor's role in minimizing citizen complaints at the scene
- Coaching officers to prevent excessive force litigation
- Conducting excessive force and misconduct investigations
- Conducting a post-incident use of force team debriefing
- First-line supervisor's role in use of force training and evaluation
- Supervisor's role in preventing department liability

Your Instructor

Howard Webb is the author of the comprehensive liability management treatise MANAGING THE USE OF INCIDENT for Officers, Supervisors, and Administrators. Howard is the former use of force expert for the State of Oregon and Montana. He is a nationally recognized criminal justice liability management expert and expert witness. As an expert on criminal justice liability and use of force, Howard has reviewed over a thousand use of force incidents and testified in defense of criminal justice officers over 300 times in state and federal courts and labor relations hearings. He is a contributing author who writes on use of force issues for POLICE magazine.

The American Council on Criminal Justice Training is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides criminal justice training seminars and instructor development courses.

Idaho POST
Certified Training
Seminar Attendees
Receive eight Idaho
POST Training
Hours

Register On-line: www.accjt.org

American Council on Criminal Justice Training
PO Box 1702 Missoula, Montana 59806 (406) 241-6150

Who Should Attend:
Law Enforcement, Corrections, Parole and Probation, and Public Safety First-Line Supervisors & Mid-Managers

